What is Dame Cycling?

Kelli Salone

International Mountain Biker, Downhill and Slalom racer identified a short fall in the support network and the apparel available to the increasing amount of females joining the sport in the UK.

Kelli has created Dame Cycling to encourage ladies of all abilities, from complete novice to the more accomplished rider, to experience and enjoy all disciplines of cycling whilst offering an exciting range of technical clothing to suit all of your cycling needs. Join Dame today, start riding, starting achieving, start saving!

Ride

If you are a complete novice and want to gain confidence in your cycling skills, you will have development rides available in your local area. Improve your technique and increase your fitness levels. For the more accomplished riders out there, more demanding rides are available to take you to the next level.

Achieve

Whether it's riding on the back wheel of a group, entering your first event or conquering a drop off or tough root section, you will achieve more than you thought with the support of like-minded ladies.

Belong

Be part of the Dame Cycling family. From weekly rides, regular sportives, special events or off-season training. Feel the benefits and support of your fellow Dames.
